

CHAPTER 3

RESEARCH METHODS

The approach that will be used by research to conduct research is a descriptive approach with a skinative method, a descriptive approach is one type of approach whose purpose is to present a complete picture of the event or problem to be studied. The research location chosen by the researcher is at SMP Negeri 5 Ulunoyo, this school is located on Jln. Arah Ulunoyo, Bõrõwõsi Village, South Nias Regency. In this study, the research instrument is the researcher himself, who functions to determine the focus of research, select informants as data sources, conduct data collection, assess data quality, analyze data, interpret data and make conclusions on his findings Hardani et al, 2020.